ABOUT THE YEARBOOK

The Yearbook of American & Canadian Churches has served as the definitive handbook of North American denominations since 1916. Over our 100 year history, The Yearbook has remained an authoritative source for the most accurate and complete compilation of statistical data for North American religious bodies. Now an interactive online application, The Yearbook continues to catalog census information for  denominational religious bodies. As of 2020, the Yearbook represents , faithful members, , clergy, , congregations, , educational bodies, and more than $,,,. in total financial commitment.

Each listing contains a brief paragraph about the religious body, contact information for the group, and informative graphs detailing current and historical statistical data. Previously stewarded by the National Council of Churches, The Yearbook is overseen by the Association of Statisticians of American Religious Bodies (ASARB). in partnership with The National Council of Churches and Lake Institute on Faith and Giving. We invite you to join our effort by adding data for your religious group, becoming an ASARB member or making a contribution to our cause.

Organized in 1964, the North American Baptist Fellowship (NABF) is a voluntary organization of Baptist conventions and conferences, and other Baptist-related groups in Canada and the United States. It functions as one of the six regional bodies of the Baptist World Alliance. Its objectives are, (a) to promote fellowship and cooperation among Baptists in North America and (b) to further the aims and objectives of the Baptist World Alliance so far as these affect the life of the Baptist churches in North America. Its membership, however, is not identical with the North American membership of the Baptist World Alliance as various Baptist groups may affiliate with NABF who are not seeking membership in the Baptist World Alliance.

Church membership of the NABF bodies is more than 15 million.

The NABF assembles representatives of the member bodies twice each year for fellowship, dialogue, and strategic action. It develops networks around special interest areas that encourage the various member bodies to engage in synergistic efforts in areas of ministry such as disaster response, church planting movements, developing creative futures for denominations, the ministry of men, women, and youth, strengthening the identity of Baptists in North America, and in the traditional areas of support for evangelism, missions, and theological education. It also engages in partnership efforts with the other five regions of the Baptist World Alliance.
